Winter Sports Camp With Alex Edwards

Sponsored by Middlefield Park and Recreation

What is it?

This is a winter sports camp that runs in three different sessions on Wednesdays or Thursdays. The focus is on developing many different skills in a variety of sports and activities while at the same time building self-esteem, confidence and learning about competition and sportsmanship. Some of the activities are related to soccer, basketball, floor hockey, whiffle ball, throwing and dodging games, tag and flag activities and many more fun and exciting games.
