

My Sister Took Ballet

My sister took ballet
and I had to pay.
She wanted me to play
but I said, “No way!”
Then on her birthday
we got her a blue jay.
She brought it to ballet
and all of the kids ran away.
Then we realized it was a stray.
My sister gave him her piece of clay
down by the bay
near the café that day.
And that is the story of
when my sister took ballet.
