

Getting my Webkinz

“I’m getting a Webkinz at the Durham Pharmacy!” I screamed. “Do you know what kind of Webkinz you are getting?” asked Mom. “No, but I think I’m getting a dog.” I said excitedly. “Then what are we waiting for? Let’s go!” said Dad. We jumped and shouted as we got into the car and zoomed off. But first we are going to Target to shop on our gift cards. “Yes!” I screamed as loud as I could. “With Adam and Aaron.” Mom added. “That’s even better.” I said.

When I got to Target I decided to buy a Tamagotchi, a pack of candy necklaces, and lip smackers. Megan bought a Tamagotchi and a lipstick. Adam bought just a Tamagotchi. Aaron bought a Tamagotchi and a pack of Harry Potter CD’s. When we were done shopping we said good-bye to Adam and Aaron and left Target. I was a little upset, but I was excited to get my Webkinz.

When I got to the Durham Pharmacy I ran in through the door. I saw a whole stack of Webkinz. I picked out a dark little Webkinz dog and Megan picked out a horse. We paid for the animals, when all of a sudden I saw a little Webkinz dog. “I wish I could buy that Webkinz”, I said. “You can buy the light Webkinz. Both of the dogs are the same price”, said Mom. I stuffed the dark Webkinz into its pocket again and grabbed the light Webkinz. We went out the door and zoomed home.

I named my Webkinz dog Sugar. As soon as I got home I ran upstairs and got on the computer. I went on the Webkinz World site and adopted Sugar. I found out that Sugar’s Birthday was July 8th and her breed was a Golden Retriever. I bought Sugar two rooms, a welcome balloon, a Webkinz guide, a bone and lots more food. I had fun and still am having fun with my Webkinz.
