

The Governor's Reading Challenge

Every summer the Governor asks students to read books and write down the title of each book on a list. The adults in the building fill out a list too. You can read any book you want. You can read as many books as you would like. At the end of the summer, you bring back your list and give it to your teacher. She or he will then send the list to Mrs. Davis. She puts them up in the hallway. This year 253 children and adults returned their list. That is 129 more than last year. Hopefully, next year, everyone will return the Governor's Reading Challenge.
