

The Adventures of Ulysses Challenge ?????

Answer this question after you have read the chapter "Circe".

1. Imagine that you are going to give a talk to your class about Ulysses as a character. Using information from the beginning of the book until page 70, write two important character traits of Ulysses that you would include in your speech.

Answer this question after you have read the chapter "The Cattle of Sun".

2. According to the chapter, what human characteristics seem to be highly valued by the Gods? Use information from the chapter to support your answer.

After the end of the book.

3. How can you tell that the author, Homer, whose story was translated by Bernard Elvslin, felt that Greek mythology is significant in explaining the importance of heroes and heroines as role models?